

Edward Wallace

5 Kendell Street, Sheffield S1 5EH/p>

07912345678

Edward.Wallace@example-example.co.uk

Professional summary

Inspiring professional plans and delivers high quality sessions for students to practice and improve artistic skills. Motivates and encourages students, providing safe space for growth and exploration.

Work history

September 2018 – Current

Sheffield Arts School – Sheffield

Drama Teacher

- Incorporated student feedback on rehearsals to improve performance and choreograph better routines.
- Increased student learning development by preparing innovative, creative and engaging lesson plans while keeping within curriculum requirements.
- Proactively mentored students throughout training, providing constructive feedback to maximise performance skills.

January 2016 – August 2018

Sheffield Primary School – Sheffield

Teaching Assistant

- Supervised students to maintain adherence with health and safety requirements, inside and outside classroom environments.
- Organised extracurricular activities to drive social, emotional and intellectual development.
- Prepared positive, productive learning environments with engaging wall displays and effective resources.

Skills

- Student development techniques
- Event planning
- Curriculum development
- Singing
- Choreography
- Lesson planning

- Acting and performing
- Play directing
- Student capability assessment
- Activity-based learning

Education

University of London London – 2015

Bachelor of Arts English Literature